Christ, of all my hopes the Ground; Christ, the Spring of all my joy;
Let your love my heart inflame; Keep your fear before my sight;
Fountain of overflowing grace, Freely from your fullness give;
Firmly trusting in your blood, Nothing shall my heart confound;
Thus, O thus, an entrance give To the land of cloudless sky;

Still in Thee may I be found, Still for Thee my powers employ,
Be your praise my highest aim; Be your smile my chief delight,
Till I close my earthly race, May I prove it “Christ to live!”
Safely I shall pass the flood, Safely reach Em-manuel’s ground,
Having known it “Christ to live,” Let me know it “gain to die,”
